

Sports Video

The Sports Video Department at Washington State University is divided into three areas: Internal Video, Strategy Video and Broadcast Video. Our mission is to provide support for all of the department's video needs; provide coaches and student-athletes with videotape breakdowns for analysis, and to maximize the positive exposure of the student-athletes and teams of Washington State University.

Internal Video

- Maintain/operate department video equipment.
- Maintain meeting room video equipment.
- Assist with sport/area video equipment acquisition.
- Oversee video production for in-house display.

Strategy Video

- Videotape practices and competitions.
- Edit videotape breakdowns of specific plays, formations, and personnel.
- Opponent videotape acquisition and breakdown.
- Database/server maintenance and upkeep of the digital video system network.

Broadcast Video

- Coordinate the production of events for broadcast.
- Provide highlights, feature stories, and interviews for broadcasters.
- Produce special projects; "Season of Destiny," "P.R.O.W.L. Video," ticket spots.
- Produce highlight music videos.
- Archive all broadcast events involving Washington State University teams and student-athletes.
- Produce highlights, feature stories, and interviews for web streaming.

Copying Rules

- Because of equipment/time limitations and NCAA rules, the Sports Video Department cannot provide student-athletes with dubs. Any dub request needs to be made by a coach.
- Student-athletes who have exhausted their eligibility may request dubs. These dubs will be done as time allows and will incur a charge of $20.00 per hour to cover equipment/personnel costs.
